

Staff Accountant

Wheeler Wolfenden and Dwares, CPAs has an outstanding opportunity for an individual to fill a Staff Accountant position in our suburban Wilmington, Delaware office.

As a Staff Accountant you will primarily be involved with:

- Performing fieldwork and documenting results in connection with all phases of audits, reviews, and compilations of the financial statements of privately held businesses and nonprofit organizations
- Preparing tax returns for businesses, individuals, estates/trusts, and nonprofit organizations
- Participating in both internal and external continuing education
- Working individually and as a team member on various engagements
- Keeping yourself organized and informing your supervisors/team members of your job progress
- Learning and mastering the wide variety of computer applications utilized by our firm

For the Staff Accountant position we prefer candidates with the following:

- BS or MS degree in Accounting
- Already passed or made progress towards passing the CPA exam
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- Proficient with the use of varied computing/communications equipment and software as well as the intuitive ability to learn new applications
- Good analytical ability

Why Wheeler Wolfenden and Dwares, CPAs?

Attracting, developing and retaining the best team members is a top priority for our firm. Wheeler Wolfenden and Dwares, CPAs seeks talented, entrepreneurial-minded individuals who want to grow their careers by helping our clients achieve their goals. We treat you like an individual, just like we treat our clients. Our firm is committed to providing a work environment that fosters your professional growth and personal success.

We believe striving for a healthy work/life balance is essential. Flexible schedules, casual dress code in the office, participating in community events, and on-the-clock time to study for the CPA exam are just a few of the ways we are not your typical CPA firm. You will find our office environment professional, yet relaxed and comfortable.

We provide opportunities you would not find in a larger firm. Instead of being confined to one specific area of accounting, our team members experience the full array of accounting sub-specialties and have opportunities for direct client interaction from the start of their careers. Having a well-rounded team creates a collegial environment where everyone supports each other, so be sure to leave the ego at home.
